Hi Ciara,

It looks to me like they are not double listed. The co-ordinates, although next to each other, are different. Also, a different abstraction point name has been given by the registrant for each of the points.

Please let me know if you have any further queries.

Regards,
Phil

Philip,

Would it be possible for you to advise me on the following;

In lines 1731 to 1734 of the excel spreadsheet provided, there are four listed abstraction points for public water supply in Kilkenny city. Within the four, the points seem to be almost paired, with almost matching co-ordinates. Is it possible that the Kilkenny abstraction points are double listed?

Regards,
Ciara O Mahony

To the Environmental Protection Agency,

I am seeking information on water abstractions on the River Nore in the vicinity of Kilkenny, listed on the water abstraction register of the EPA, is this information available online? If not, could you provide a point of contact for my enquiry?

With thanks,
